JOSEPH M. FREEDMAN
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW
LYCEUM THEATRE BUILDING
MEMPHIS, TENN.

MEMPHIS, TENN.
MAR 14
7-PM
1911

2
DESOTO
D

Mrs. Frances Levine,
70 Somers St.,
Brooklyn,
N. Y.

JOSEPH M. FREEDMAN
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW
LYCEUM THEATRE BUILDING
MEMPHIS, TENN.

March 14th, 1917.

Sweetheart:-

I've been without a fiancée for a dog-gone whole days. Lean, I've got to tell you what happened to me to-day. I tried a case & was given one of the most beautiful licking that man ever got. I was licked so bad, that I was ashamed of myself, but everybody is telling me "It's not the only one you'll love if in practice!" Funny thing! One of my own witnesses expressed me while on the stand & that defeated me. Well, I'll have to take it as it comes, I suppose. All during the trial, though, you were in my mind & was wondering what you were doing while I was getting wo- that which I did not effect. Were you busy between 11¹⁵ & 12? That was the time I was in Court.

Now, toots, how are you? How do you like your job? Do you still hear from Mrs. Maas. Let me know toots. Tell me how much you love me. I'm blue. I want you, honey, I want you.

All my love,

Joe.